INSIDE STORY

SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY LAW CENTER JOINS LOUISIANA'S HBCUs TO CELEBRATE HBCU DAY AT THE CAPITOL

The Southern University Law Center participated in SU Day at the Capitol hosted by the Louisiana Board of Regents. HBCU Day serves as an official day where all six of Louisiana's historically black colleges and universities are showcased and honored at the state capital during the legislative session.

This year's event unveiled the newly opened HBCU exhibit at the Capitol Park Museum. This marks the first phase of the Capitol Park Museum's HBCU exhibit. It includes archival photos, interpretive panels, campus highlights, and specifically curated artifacts. SULC was delighted to have the opportunity to share the amazing history of the Law Center with legislators, community members, and future students.

PRESIDENT- CHANCELLOR DENNIS J. SHIELDS DONATES HISTORICAL CASE DOCUMENTS THE SULC LAW LIBRARY

Southern University System President-Chancellor Dennis J. Shields recently donated case documents from the Grutter v. Bollinger Supreme Court Case to the Oliver B. Spellman Law Library. This is the 20th anniversary of the University of Michigan Law School affirmative action case affecting admissions in higher education. Shields was named a defendant in that case as he devised the race-conscious admissions policy that was challenged
