

CHANCELLOR'S REPORT
SEPTEMBER 2020

SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY

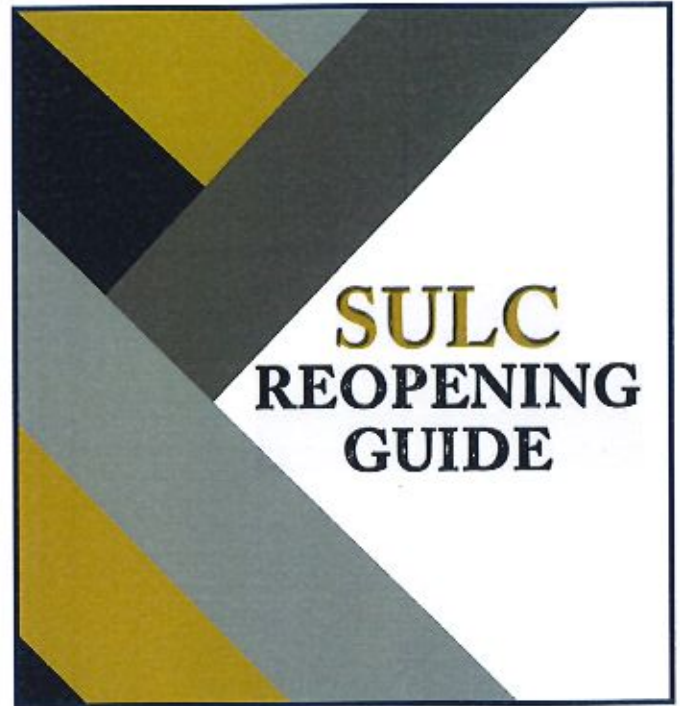

LAW CENTER

SERIOUSNESS OF PURPOSE

NEWS

REOPENING WEBSITE

The Law Center launched its reopening website at the beginning of the fall semester. Within the site, the campus and community can access documents including the reopening guide, student forms, new procedures and frequently asked questions. This was an effort to continue transparency among our community and to create a safe and effective return back to campus. You can visit the reopening site at www.sulc.edu/reopening.

STUDENT HIGHLIGHTS

STACY PORCHE

Porche was announced as a Ms. JD Fellow for the 2020-2021 year. Ms. JD is a non-profit organization that focuses on women in the legal profession.

DANIEL BANGUEL

Banguel, activist and political strategist, led alumna Johnell Matthews' winning campaign for baton Rouge City Court Judge.

NAJAH WILLIAMS

Williams, a first year law student, was awarded the 2020 national Association of Minority & Women Owned Law Firms (NAMWOLF) Pipeline Diversity Scholarship. NAMWOLF's vision is to achieve equity in legal opportunity through minority and women owned law firms.

STAFF HIGHLIGHTS

SHENEQUA GREY

Grey was recently featured in a CNN article discussing the reopening of college campuses and the safety surrounding it. She weighed in among health experts on how to make returning to campus as safe as possible.

LENA JOHNSON

Johnson, coordinator of Admission, was recently recognized as a member of the International Association of Women. This organization focuses on expanding the networks of professional women and provide them with career and professional development opportunities.

ALUMNI HIGHLIGHTS

MICHEAL R.D. ADAMS

Adams, '88, was elected to serve as president of the Baton Rouge chapter of 100 Black Men, Inc. He is currently a partner at the DeCuir, Clark & Adams law firm.

BRITTANY BROWN

Brown, '19, was honored with the National Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division Chairman's Award for service and leadership during the 2019-2020 bar year.

ROBERT MCKNIGHT

McKnight, '06, was recently featured as a nominee in The Gambit's 40 under 40 awards. He was also elected to serve on the Orleans Parish Democratic Committee.

ALUMNI HIGHLIGHTS

JOHNELL MATTHEWS

Recently, Matthews was elected as a Baton Rouge City Court Judge. She graduated in 2001.

TIFFANY FOXWORTH

Foxworth, '05, was recently elected as a judge for the 19th Judicial Court.

MARK DORE

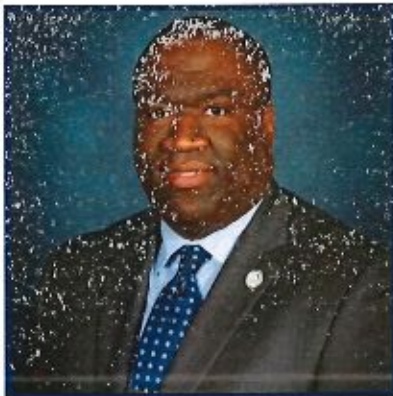

Dore, '09, was elected to the Lafayette Economic Development Authority Board of Commissioners. His position will allow him to help grow the community's business base for future development and diversification.

ALUMNI HIGHLIGHTS

DERRICK KEE

Kee, '05, was elected as District Judge of Division F in Calcasieu Parish. He ran unopposed.

TAVARES WALKER

Walker, '08, has been named Assistant Secretary for the Louisiana Workforce Commission. Walker was also a former director of the Law Center's Office of Career Services and adjunct professor of law.

JEREMY GATHE

Gathe is now the Associate General of Counsel and Executive Director of Compliance and Ethics for the Southern University System. Gathe oversees and coordinates system-wide compliance activities, in addition to ensuring the University and its employees are complying with higher education laws and regulations.

SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY LAW CENTER
P.O. Box 9294, BATON ROUGE, LA 70813
(225)-771-2552 | WWW.SULC.EDU

The Southern University Law Center is a unit of the Southern University System

Domoine D. Rutledge, Esq., Chairman, Board of Supervisors
Dr. Ray L. Belton, Southern University and A&M College System President John K. Pierre, SULC
Chancellor

Produced by the SULC Office of External Affairs | Photography by Steve Jarreau