Motion carried unanimously.

AGENDA ITEM 4: PUBLIC COMMENTS

SUBR student, Jerry Jones spoke in opposition to Agenda Item 5B: Section 9W Football Ticket Sales (A.W. Mumford Stadium).
AGENDA ITEM 5: INFORMATIONAL ITEMS

A. Report on the 2008-2009 Athletic Budget for SUBR

Chancellor Lomotey reported that the 2008-2009 Athletic Budget for SUBR was submitted for approval as a part of the University’s operating budget.

Mr. Taylor voiced concern that the procedure which provides for submission of the Athletics Budgets for Board approval via the Athletics Committee was not followed.

B. Section 9W Football Ticket Sales (A. W. Mumford Stadium)

Mr. Taylor registered his objection to the sale of Section 9W football tickets and the relocation of students to another section of the stadium. He advised the committee that students are assessed a fee for athletics and are entitled to seats that were previously allocated in Section 9W.

Athletics Director Gregory LaFleur responded that the sale of these prime tickets would generate greatly needed additional revenues for the Athletics Department. He also advised that 7000 seats were available in that section, but only 2000 were being sold. A study by the Athletics Department revealed that less than 2000 students use seats in that Section.

AGENDA ITEM 5: INFORMATIONAL ITEM

A. Legal Status of Land Donation, SUAREC

Chancellor Williams reported on the legal impediments to the S.U. Agricultural Research Center’s (SUAREC) acceptance of property in St. Landry Parish that was to be donated by the Old Evangeline Downs, LLC for the location of the Southwest Center for Rural Initiatives. Although another location has been identified as a viable alternative, a bid for this property has been made by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The Ag Center must now wait until Friday, May 15 to ascertain the availability of this site. In the event the Ag Center cannot purchase the alternative site, then, Evangeline Downs is prepared to donate another piece of property.

The Committee suggested that the Old Evangeline Downs, LLC be given official notice that SUAREC is unable to accept its previously identified property for the Southwest Center for Rural Initiatives.

The Administration requested the Board’s authorization to proceed with negotiations to secure a site for the Southwest Center for Rural Initiatives.
